Workshops @ The Instrument Petting Zoo

Fiddle and Friends Molly White 1:15 pm
ABC's of Jugband Music with Morgan Cochneuer 2:30 pm

Workshops @ The Eucalyptus Grove

The Songs of Hank Williams, (jamming area 5) - 12:00 pm A Hank Williams tribute (sing along if you dare and we're double dog daring you) with Cowboy Dave Volk and his Ruminators. A period correct band with fiddle and steel guitar, just as country music sounded in the 1940s. Luke the Drifter may reappear. There was no automatic tuning then, so you have to stay on pitch!

Nothing over 90 BPM, (jamming area 5) - 1 pm Jam on Bluegrass Classics at a relaxed pace. DJ Reed and his band will lead classic songs and fiddle tunes at a more relaxed pace. There will be a flip chart with chords.

Workshop @ J2

High and Lonesome Harmony with the Po' Ramblin' Boys 2:30 pm (jamming area 2, Crazy J Ranch) The harmonies of bluegrass music have helped separate the genre from others since Bill Monroe stepped on the Grand Ole Opry stage. Through the generations, acts have adapted their own singing styles and harmony structures, such as The Osborne Brothers, The Stanley Bothers, Jimmy Martin and Flatt & Scruggs. Join the Po' Ramblin' Boys as they dive into different harmony stacks, phasing and even sing some for you in the intimate setting.
